APPEARING FOR APPELLANT:

New York, NY

APPEARING FOR APPELLEE:

JOHN-ALEX ROMANO, (Patty Merkamp Stemler,
United States Department of Justice, Washington,
DC; Terrance P. Flynn, United States Attorney,
Richard A. Resnick, Assistant United States
Attorney, United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of New York, Buffalo, NY),
United States Department of Justice, Washington,
DC

Appeal from an order of the United States District Court of the Western District of
New York (Charles J. Siragusa, Judge).

UPON DUE CONSIDERATION, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED,
AND DECREED that the cause is REMANDED.

The Defendant, Richard N. Amico, has moved for bail pending appeal. In some measure because of incomprehensible delays in the preparation of transcripts by the official court reporter assigned to Judge Siragusa, the appeal in this action and the filing of the motion for bail has been unduly delayed. A review of the record indicates the presence of substantial questions on appeal, including questions regarding whether the district judge presiding over the trial of Amico ought to have recused himself. We intimate no view on the ultimate merits of Amico's claims on appeal. In view of the issues raised on appeal, we remand the cause to the district court for the sole purpose of entertaining a renewed motion for bail pending appeal and direct that the case be assigned to a judge other than the judge who presided at trial. In the meantime, the appeal on the merits shall be EXPEDITED and heard by a merits panel as soon as practicable. If and when there is an appeal of any further order of the District Court on a renewed motion for bail, that appeal shall likewise be EXPEDITED and, if at all possible, assigned to the panel that will hear the appeal on the merits.

The mandate, limited to the bail application referred to above, shall issue forthwith.
